Interstate Batteries 2019 Redskins Player of the Year

YOUTH FOR TOMORROW THE QUARTERBACK CLUB OF WASHINGTON AND THE REDSKINS PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Robert J. Geoghan, Founder and President of the Quarterback Club of Washington since its inception in 1965, has donated to Joe Gibbs' Youth For Tomorrow – New Life Center, Inc. the Quarterback Club of Washington name and all rights and properties established through its 50 year history.

Since the inaugural award, every year the award is given at the end of the season to the outstanding player as voted on by members of the QBC. This Redskins Player of the Year award will continue under the auspices of Youth For Tomorrow with Larry Michael as the Chairman and voted on by the 80 Greatest Redskins.

JIM KELLEY

Widely regarded as one of the great NFL quarterbacks of his time Jim Kelly was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2002 in his first year of eligibility.

The Buffalo Bills selected quarterback Jim Kelly in the first round of the 1983 NFL Draft. However, the Miami Hurricane star opted to sign with the Houston Gamblers of the United States Football League. Kelly, in two seasons with the Gamblers, threw for 9,842 yards and 83 touchdowns. He was named USFL MVP in 1984, setting league records with 5,219 yards and 44 touchdowns. Kelly was later named to the USFL All-Time Team.

The USFL folded following the 1985 season, and Kelly, just prior to the start of the 1986 NFL season, signed with the Bills.

A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly lived up to his advance billing, as he virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and twenty-six times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game. On September 13, 1992, in a 34-31 shootout victory over the Steve Young-led San Francisco 49ers, Kelly passed for a career-high 403 yards.

The Bills, during the 1990s, with Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, possessed a highly potent offense. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses. He led the NFL in passing in 1990 and the AFC again in 1991. With his 101.2 passer rating in 1990, he became only the fifth quarterback to maintain a rating over 100 since the system was introduced in 1973.
